Food & Beverage Operations Manager - Job Description

Rochestown Park Hotel is seeking an experienced Food & Beverage Operations Manager The successful candidate will be responsible for the operational and financial performance of the Food & Beverage (BAR) Department

Purpose of the Role:
To ensure the effective and efficient management and delivery of all Food & Beverage Operations by promoting and providing the highest level of customer care and superior service excellence in line with agreed budgets and cost conscious targets.

Some Key Responsibilities:
·To effectively manage all Food & Beverage Operations across all outlets of the Bar department (Suttons Bar & Bistro, Atrium Bar & Conference Bars) in line with agreed standards
·To deliver a consistently exceptional level of customer care in each outlet, resulting in each area being recognised for its strong sense of quality & service
·Drive for the highest standard of presentation in Suttons Bistro and all Bar outlets to include: cleanliness, maintenance and atmosphere
·To develop strong departmental training practices through records and procedures that will assist in achieving consistent high standards
·Structured approach to ensure a tight control is maintained on all stock and associated products and to account for loss
·Developing and maintaining budgets in terms of stock, sales and labour

Skills and Experience:
·Relevant 3rd level qualification in Hospitality/Management
·Minimum of 3/4 years' Food & Beverage Management experience
·Positive, outgoing and friendly personality with a hands on approach
·The ability to lead and motivate the team
·Ability to delegate tasks accordingly
·Highly organised with the ability to drive new initiatives